Cage Table

New ways of living demand new design solutions. That's the philosophy behind the Cage series, which combines strong functional storage ambition with an elegant aesthetic. Cage Table is a beautiful marble top side table with slender steel legs that ingeniously cross over each other to form a cage. Position next to the sofa or favorite armchair and fill the cage with magazines, art books or blankets. The Cage series is designed for MENU by the multi-talented Stockholm studio Form Us With Love.

About the Designer

The philosophy of design studio Form Us With Love is simple: to challenge conventional design thinking. The internationally acclaimed Stockholm practice was established in 2005 by six designers: Jonas Pettersson, John Löfgren, Petrus Palmér, Caroline Brahme, Axel Norlander and Christian Fiebig. In 2013, FUWL won "Designer of the Year" at the ELLE Decoration awards in Sweden.
